News from Clark Slone in Florence, Italy

We are still hear in Florence, the home of where Savonarola was burned at the stake for preaching salvation by faith in the 15th century by pope Alexander. I was at the piazza of the "bronze Pig" where it all happened. The team and myself were there the other night praying with a group of believers for Florence. Old Savonarola really got on fire for the Lord in that plaza.

My grand daughter Ashley is with me for 9 days. We are throwing an Italian tent ministry birthday party for her she is 13. All our kids will be there. Lord help me!

A group from OM showed up from of all places Atlanta Georgia. Another group is supposed to arrive from England. I know we will have a good time with them.

A sister who got saved in 1974 in our tent showed up with the tract we had given her and she was still carrying it in her purse sealed in plastic. I remember like it was yesterday.

Man am I getting old. I was in the Val Gardena Friday in the Alps. I had spoken to a guy in a computer store and given him a tract a year ago. I was talking to some people in a lobby and he approached me and asked if I was the one who spoke to him a year earlier. He had put the tract on display in his store. We talked a good part of the morning about Jesus. I see Jesus saves people one at a time.

Alessandro had a boil in the middle of his rear end. He is our camp bookkeeper and could not sit down and that is a real problem for a bookkeeper. I prayed with a little desperation for him and lo and behold few hours latter he came running in my container shouting I'm healed. God see's everything anywhere.

We were having a street meeting on "Ponte Vechio" in the down town area. Emmanuelle was preaching to a good crowd. A women shouted our faith promoted violence. Then she attempted violently to shut up Emmanuelle and her friends accompanied her away shouting. The next day, I was down town at an Internet point and as I shared with the owner, she asked if I was with the group with the rough sounding street preacher. Yes, I said that's us. We were able to give her the gospel again. All the people have promised to come to the tent we will see. It's tough here, but not impossible.

Mariela and a team went into a school and did clowns, puppets and mime for over 500 kids. One thing we do good is acting like a bunch of clowns. (For Jesus).

We had a church unity meeting in the tent. A number of pastors preached and we really felt the Lord come down. How blessed it is when brethren come together.

We had a group of young people come and do a concert. The music was so loud the military police came out and threatened to shut us down. These guys made Lenard Skinner sound like a church choir. I have to admit I liked them. At my age it was good for clearing earwax.

Please pray for us as we still don't have permission to move to Scandiici (another part of Florence.) We are getting a little nervous. The major came out and we had a meal with him in the tent. He was really open and we gave him and his city counsel members Bibles. He was an atheist communist, but really seemed to be very open. I was able to share with him for over an hour. I don't think he had ever eaten in a big top before.

Also pray for a few bucks (euro bucks or dollars) for us as it's a tight time (what's new?). But God knows amen! Also to pray for our continued existence, that would be good. Please look at our site "citaitaly". A lot of good looking folks are there!

Well I am going to go get ready to preach in the tent. HOPE SOMEBODY SHOWS. Guess what? It just started hailing bad. I don't know how that will effect the meeting but it will sure clean the tent, that is if the wind doesn't blow it down. When I was a kid I wanted to run off and join the circus. I think sometimes I got my wish.

Luv ya'll Clark
